When an accident happens, you decide how to use your cash benefit.

How might you use your Personal Accident cash benefits? You decide.

Help protect yourself and your family from the unexpected. How you use your benefits is up to you! Examples include:

- Medical & recovery expenses, as outlined above... or if some or all of your medical and recovery expenses are paid by your medical plan, you may decide to use your benefits for:
- Home care assistance
- Child care
- Housekeeping help
- Transportation to/from appointments
- Yard work
- Anything else needed during your recovery!

If you receive initial care within one year, benefits are paid directly to you for covered expenses resulting from an accidental injury.

Only ONE Simple Decision Point

No confusing options - just one straightforward insurance plan.

Eligible Issue Ages: 18 through 74. This policy is guaranteed renewable to age 75.

Simply choose your Annual Benefit Bank

(any amount within the range shown below, in $100 increments):

Minimum = $2,500

Maximum = $15,000 for individuals or $25,000 for couples/families

Your Annual Benefit Bank represents the total dollar amount available to you or your family for covered services rendered each calendar year. On Jan. 1 of each year, your Annual Benefit Bank will restore to its full amount. You have the flexibility to choose a Benefit Bank that matches the expected out-of-pocket expenses of your medical plan.

It's that easy! One decision to receive reliable coverage for yourself or your whole family.

Your Annual Deductible Amount = $100

Once the actual cost of your covered medical services exceeds $100, you'll start receiving cash benefits for the remaining expenses.

Watch your deductible disappear over time.

Disappearing Deductible

On Jan. 1 of each calendar year, your Individual Annual Deductible Amount will decrease by $20 if no benefits are eligible for payment for the previous calendar year. You must have your policy for at least three full months before we can reduce your deductible for the first time. If no benefits are eligible for payment for five consecutive calendar years, your Annual Deductible Amount will be eliminated on Jan. 1 of the next year. Once your Annual Deductible Amount reaches zero, it will not reset. If any covered services during the previous calendar year are eligible for payment, your Annual Deductible Amount will reset on the following Jan. 1 to the original amount.

Example

Mark purchased a Personal Accident Insurance policy five years ago, and has never received benefits. As a result, his deductible has decreased to zero, as shown below:

Year	Deductible on Jan. 1
1	$100
2	$80
3	$60
4	$40
5	$20
6	$0

How is your Personal Accident benefit payment calculated?

If you receive care within one year of an accidental injury, simply submit proof of claim for your actual medical and/or recovery expenses. While your medical coverage pays benefits directly to the provider, you can receive cash benefit payouts, minus your $100 deductible, from your Personal Accident Insurance policy. Your Personal Accident benefit payout will be less any adjustments or discounts negotiated between your health insurance plan and providers for services you received.

Example - Individual Personal Accident Benefit Payout

Donna chose a Personal Accident Plan with an Annual Benefit Bank of $10,000 and an Annual Personal Accident Deductible of $100 to supplement her medical plan. She broke her collar bone while skiing with friends and required immediate medical attention, with medical expenses totalling $8,800.

$8,800	—	$100	=	$8,700

How does the Family Deductible work?

The family deductible only applies if your spouse/partner and/or children are covered as dependents on your policy.

The annual deductible for family coverage is $200 and must be satisfied by two or more covered family members.

Once the $200 family deductible is satisfied, benefits will be eligible for payment for all covered family members for the rest of the calendar year, up to your Annual Benefit Bank amount. Benefits may be paid for a covered family member before the full family deductible is satisfied.

Example - Family Personal Accident Benefit Payout

Dave purchased a policy that includes coverage for his wife, Kim, and their two children to supplement his family's medical plan. He chose a shared Annual Benefit Bank of $15,000 and an annual individual deductible of $100 for the Personal Accident policy.

In one calendar year, each member of the family suffered an accidental injury, resulting in the benefit payout scenario shown below:

Accidental Injuries	Reimbursable Expenses		Personal Accident Deductible		Personal Accident Benefit Payout
(Dave) - Lacerated finger	$100	—	$100	=	$0
(Kim) - Sprained ankle	$1,000	—	$100	=	$900
Annual Personal Accident Family Deductible of $200 is satisfied
(Michael) - Broken nose	$4,000	—	$0	=	$4,000
(Mandy) - Broken leg	$8,000	—	$0	=	$8,000

Total Benefit Payout: $12,900
